CIVIL NO: T.A. KLCE2018-01384

TPI: KEF 2011-0240 (1003)

FORCED EXPROPRIATION

ANSWER TO CERTIORARI

To the Honorable Court:

COMES NOW The Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority, through the undersigned legal representation and before this Honorable Court very respectfully states, informs, and prays:

1. The appealed party does not object to the issuance of the Writ of Certiorari, as requested by petitioner herein.
2. The appealed party does not object to the authorization of the disbursement of the funds corresponding to the participations of Adrián Mercado Jiménez, Teresa Vizcarrondo Toro and their conjugal partnership corresponding to both in plots 021-01 and 021-04.
3. We agree with petitioner regarding the Bankruptcy Court partially lifting the stay only for the purpose of submitting a stipulation between them and the appealed party herein for the payment of the amount agreed to by stipulation.
4. We understand that the Honorable Judge Leticia Ortiz has jurisdiction to pass judgment on the stipulation that was submitted and that the same only refers to the appealed party and petitioners herein.
5. We accept that, in this case, there are no other parties requesting any remedies in the Bankruptcy court nor in the Court of First Instance.
6. The appealed party herein submitted all documents required by the CFI (TPI) that support the reason why petitioners herein are creditors of the additional consigned sum.
7. No controversies remain between the appealed party herein and petitioners herein.
8. The only pending matter in this case is to clarify that the non-stoppage permitted by the Bankruptcy Court in this case is only partial and is limited to the content of the stipulation that was submitted and the consignment of the corresponding additional sum only in the participation of petitioners herein on
